Have your customer enter:
Wreath

Total amount of the sale
(Do not enter each wreath)

Your first name and last initial.

Select a payment type button

I will see the customer's name on the transaction
email

Do not forget to mark PayPal on the order and receipt forms for PayPal, Venmo, and Debit/Credit cards. That way I can match on-line payments with orders.

If it does not say “Thank you for your payment” you did not get paid

Each Scout will have 1/2 of the profit from each item they sold deposited in their scout fund. The scout fund can be used to pay for registration, scout camp, or any other scout related expense. No check will be issued without a documented scouting related expense. If you transfer to another scout unit a check payable to the new unit will be issued on request. Abandoned funds will be transferred to the campership fund.

Pack and Troop 113 retain the remainder of the funds to pay for the products sold, pay PayPal fees, and other sale related expenses. The excess is used to pay for unit operating expenses.
