

Harold Rothschild Memorial Award

This is a Scout's opportunity to earn money for high adventure activities.

Award Period

February 1 - January 31

Award Review Committee

Shall consist of the Scoutmaster and the Troop Committee

Award Amount

The Review Committee shall use only the accumulated interest in the fund, leaving the principle intact. The principle shall consist of the original $5,000, plus any additional amounts the Troop Committee should wish to add. The Review Committee shall determine the amount of the award based upon the number of boys eligible and the amount of interest available.

Award Restrictions

The award money is to be used by the recipient only for High Adventure Scouting activities, including travel expenses, (e.g., Philmont, Sea Base, National Jamboree, International Jamboree, Canoe Base, etc.). The award money need not be used in the year it is awarded. Any unused or forfeited awards will be placed in a fund for adult leader training expenses.
